House Decorating Contest

Winners Chosen ... The Envelope, Please

Thanks to the efforts of the judges selected by District 28 trustee Mark Warren, — and, of course, to the efforts of all those who did such a tremendous job decorating their homes for the holidays — the first, second, and third place winners have been chosen in two categories: house decorations and door decorations. Without further ado, the winners are:

House

1st Place — Larry and Pat Hunt, 300 Colonial Ave.; 2nd Place — Christine Armbrust, 361 Kenbrook Ave.; and 3rd Place — James and Mary Finney, 435 N. Selby Ave.

Door

1st Place — Phil and Deanna Whitaker, 333 Colonial Ave.; 2nd Place — J.R. Richardson and Kathy Schneider, 356 Colonial Ave.; and 3rd Place — Paul and Hattie Snouffer, 302 Loveman.

Congratulations to the winners, and thanks to all of Colonial Hills for making the neighborhood such a colorful place around the holidays.

Fourth of July Celebration Needs Chair (Or Co-Chairs)

A chair is needed to help bring together the other various committees that make up the extremely popular Fourth of July Celebration. Making the task less daunting is a large body of experience to draw from, and several committees are already in place. Most of the work will consist of coordinating the various volunteers.

If you are interested, or simply would like more information, contact Rob Wendling at 785-9681.

WERE YOU MISSED IN THE 1996-97 MEMBERSHIP DRIVE?

In case you were missed during this year's drive, here is another opportunity to participate through membership or a donation to the luminaria fund. Please check the box next to the appropriate amount. Make checks payable to the Colonial Hills Civic Association and either contact your trustee (see back cover) or mail to the Colonial Hills Civic Association, PO Box 676, Worthington, OH 43085.

Thank you in advance for your support.

Unfinished Business

Basketball Court Problem: Don Ogle discussed the meeting of the committee formed to address the issue. He spoke with officials in Bexley, who had experienced a similar problem. It was decided that a notice would be published in the Courier listing several options and asking for residents' input.

New and Miscellaneous Business

Scholarship Application Form: Beth Fischer presented several modifications to the scholarship application form.

The December meeting was held on December 17, 1996. Minutes from the November 1996 meeting will be read at the January meeting.

Committee Reports

Luminaria kit-making: Rob Wendling reported that the luminaria/membership drive is wrapping up. The luminaria kits were assembled and distributed to trustees on December 14, 1996; luminaria display night was set for December 22, 1996 from 7-10 pm.

Holiday Party: Don Ogle reported that the Holiday party was held on Sunday, December 15, 1996.

There were three activities: face painting, cookie decorating, and ornament decorating.

Attendance was low; a suggestion was made to send flyers home with Colonial Hills Elementary students.

Decoration Contest: Mark Warren had chosen the judges for the Holiday Decorating Contest (two categories: best door and best house) which was held on December 21, 1996.

Safety Committee: Don Ogle distributed a survey about Indianola Park. Trustees were asked to poll 5 neighbors for opinions about safety issues related to the park.

Miscellaneous Business

Rob Wendling is looking for a chairperson for the July 4th event.

There are 4 new trustees; Doug Knight (20); Julie Riber (22); Dan & Jennifer But-ton (5); and Bev Snodgrass (38).

Rob Wendling proposed that districts 36, 37 & 38 be changed so that the condo area would be a separate district. District 36 would be 45-87 E. Selby and 128-150 E. Selby. District 37 would be all of Selby Court.

District 38 would be 91-137 (odd numbers) E. Selby and 5573-5581 Morning St. (odd numbers). Further discussion will be held at the January meeting.

A motion to close the meeting was made by Larry Hunt; Mark Warren seconded, and the motion was accepted.
