SEPTEMBER 2026 - A PUBLICATION OF THE COLONIAL HILLS CIVIC ASSOCIATION (CHCA)

Greetings, Colonial Hills Friends and Neighbors!!

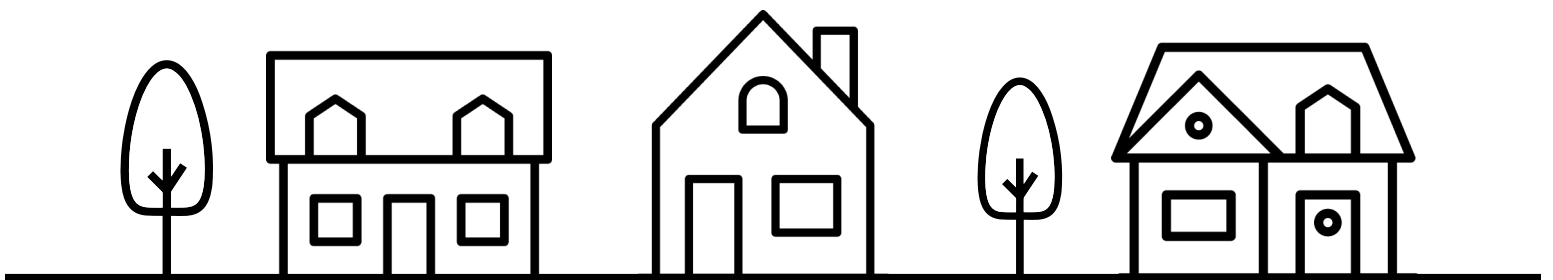

I hope that you have had a fantastic summer!!! Those couple of months sure flew by—and now our kids are back in school, skies are darkening in the evening just a little earlier, and football games are here!! We are still enjoying some glorious summer-like days, but these cool nights are a reminder that very soon, the leaves will start falling, and it will be time to get out the rakes and carve those pumpkins!!

There is lots going on in the Hills, as we start leaning into Fall—we have our Halloween house decorating contest, the Halloween Party and Pumpkin Patch, and our annual Neighborhood Food Drive; please consider spending an hour or two as a volunteer and get to know your neighbors!! You can find out more about the “goings on” by stopping over to the Selby Park Shelter House at 7:30 pm on the second Tuesday of every month. We would love to see you there!!

I hope that whatever you have going on over the next few months, that you have a chance to take in the beauty of this season~~ that you make time to enjoy friends, family and all that makes life wonderful!!!

See you around the Hills!

Kindest regards,
Leslie Caruso

HALLOWEEN HOUSE DECORATING COMPETITION

JUDGING ON TUESDAY,
OCTOBER
27 AT 7PM

The Autumn is a time for falling leaves, all things pumpkin spice, and houses of terror...wait a second, who made this list? Ok, ok, I relent from my squeamish tendencies and the CHCA is proud to announce the 8th Annual Halloween House Decorating Context. While running only a tenth of the time as the 4th of July celebrating, it is quickly becoming quite epic. So create your Haunted House, spook out your front yard, design your pumpkin patch or front yard corn maze... whatever is your jam, get it ready for Annual Halloween Decoration Contest, to be judged on Tuesday, October 27th, 2026 at 7:00 pm. The five categories are: Spookiest, Friendliest, Most Creative, Best Effects and Best Activity. Have fun with your funky front yards and let's make this another memorable Fall-fest in the neighborhood.

HALLOWEEN PARTY AND PUMPKIN PATCH

SUNDAY,
OCTOBER 25,
3PM AT SELBY

What does a free pumpkin patch, unicorn, craft, and bags of candy all have in common? While I can't guarantee the unicorn (but educated guess that one will likely be present looking suspiciously like a cute kiddo), the rest will be present at the annual Halloween Party on October 25th at 3:00 PM. Bonus points if the parents dress up in matching costumes to their kids. So get your Halloween Costumes on a trial run a few days early and come enjoy the festivities your CHCA will put on for you! As always, our wonderful sponsor Cynthia MacKenzie and Cymack Real Estate will be hosting the best (and most economical) pumpkin patch out in the field with pumpkins for everyone who stops by! Whether the Great Pumpkin will stop by or not, it will be fun for all. Stop by for Halloween fun, and don't forget to take a picture in the pumpkin patch!

2026 FOURTH OF JULY RECAP

Although our recent Colonial Hills Civic Association's 4th of July Extravanzas have been spectacular and flawlessly executed, we have to say that our over 60 volunteers this year truly knocked it out of the park for our CHCA's 80th 4th of July celebration and our nation's 250th birthday!

Such a wonderful event took months of preparation, with the following Event Chairs spending countless hours planning, and then managing and performing various key tasks for our event: Overall Event Chair Alan Miroslaw, CHCA VP/Events; Amanda Rule, Mandie Dewine, and Ashley Chaney, Planning and Logistics Chairs; Jeff Spain and Courtney Jolley, 5K Race Chairs; Ron Sears, Midway Pavilions and Activities Chair; Mary Ann Ogle and Robin Ogle, Kiddie Parade Chair and Co-Chair.

All the activities from last year were back: a double lane slip 'n' slide, little kids bounce house, big kids bounce house, dunk tank, face painting, and a plethora of fun midway games and activities including Plinko, Go Fish, Duck Pond, Ring Toss, Lollipop Tree, Bubble Whack, Riot Ball, Gravity Well, Axe Throw and Color Your Own Stickers. And Randy Sanders graciously provided the very special addition to our midway of displays of authentic Ancient Artifacts made during the 10,000-year prehistoric period, which promoted the local Columbus Archeology Chapter. And the eats were also delightful: the Colonial Hills Cub Scout Pack 331 provided wallet-friendly and delicious burgers, hot dogs, chips and pop; the Cotton Candy Lady was here, and new for this year, there were cold DQ treats, which were even more wallet-friendly - free! - due to the most generous sponsorship of our event by Cynthia MacKenzie CYMACK Real Estate!

Thank you so much to our volunteers!

These folks, as well as the CHCA officers, Ron and his volunteers, Mary Ann's kiddie parade judges, and Jeff and Courtney and the 5K race volunteers are what made this party possible. This is truly a community effort and we're so grateful!

ANNUAL RUN THROUGH THE HILLS RESULTS

The 5k Race Co-Chairs Courtney Jolley and Jeff Spain and their volunteers again made this event run like clockwork, where Courtney and Jeff first successfully obtained a new race timing company, and then expertly managed publicity and signup, such that the runners could again have a first-class competition, where everyone could enjoy the 47th running of this event through our beautiful Colonial Hills course.

We congratulate everyone who participated, runners and walkers, and especially the overall winning male and female runners, with the following outstanding times:

● Jason Mehalic (16:09.32)

● Emily Banthin (21:01.42)

2026 COMPETITION WINNERS

2026 Kiddie Parade Winners, by Category

Kiddie Parade Chair Mary Ann Ogle, along with her Co-Chair Robin Ogle, again planned and conducted this traditional 4th of July event, which started after the 5k Race awards had been handed out. Every year Mary Ann and Robin turn what could be exuberant chaos into an orderly parade circling Selby Park, deftly maintaining safety for all, from the smallest paraders to the older would-be speedster bicyclists.

And to ensure safety for the regular Kiddie Parade modes of transportation, but let kids with e-bikes and e-scooters participate this year, Mary Ann let these kids line up after the traditional parade was over and the course was cleared, and then zoom two laps around the park.

Mary Ann and Robin thank their judges: Kay Hoffman, Kathy Moore, Kris Wethington, and Jessica Eloringer, for taking the time to come out and perform the very hard task of selecting the most festive decorations in the parade. These difficult decisions resulted in these winners in the following categories:

CHCA 2026 MEMBERSHIP DRIVE UPDATE

Each spring, we ask Colonial Hills residents to make a small contribution to the Colonial Hills Civic Association. Your membership dues help fund our annual scholarship for a local high school senior and cover other expenses throughout the year, including the Colonial Hills Courier and community events.

While many of our events are generously sponsored by local businesses, some are not, including portions of the July 4th celebration, the Halloween Party, the luminary display, and the food drive. Your membership dues (and many volunteer hours!) are what make the continuation of these neighborhood events possible. Even if you don't regularly attend neighborhood events or don't have a child who will eventually be eligible for the scholarship, we hope you'll consider your membership a worthwhile investment in Colonial Hills. These programs and traditions add to the sense of community that makes our neighborhood such a special place to live—and help support the value and appeal of our homes.

So far this year, fewer than 25% of Colonial Hills households have paid their membership dues. As the chart below shows, participation has steadily declined since 2011. Our goal is to bring participation back to at least 40%.

MEMBERSHIP PARTICIPATION

Meanwhile check out the table on the following page to discover which districts have bragging rights for leading the 2026 membership drive with the highest participation. If your district is not on the leaderboard, rally your neighbors!

If you haven't yet paid your 2026 membership dues, please consider doing so today. It's a small investment that makes a big difference in keeping Colonial Hills vibrant, welcoming, and connected.

CHCA OFFICER ELECTIONS

Most of your elected representatives work under the assumption that they have committed to multiple years and they can be free of trying to pander, worried about votes for the next election cycle. Not so for the CHCA Board; no, dear friends and neighbors, your Civic Association Officers are elected every year. So you can hold us accountable for every neighborhood party that went slightly awry from your expectations and vote someone else into the seat of any officer. And that also means that you can step up and serve at any time as part of the few, the proud, the CHCA Officers.

So if you are interested in participating as President, VP of Communications, VP of Events, Secretary, Treasurer or Webmaster, please email CHCAnewsletter@gmail.com or simply come to one of the meetings, the second Tuesday of every month, at the Selby Park Shelter House and express your interest!

This year we are introducing a "Junior Officer" program as well. Should you think you might be interested in volunteering, you can raise your hand for the year and volunteer alongside the current officer and decide if you want to be a part of the team for next year. Please contact us at CHCAnewsletter@gmail.com to let us know your interest.

And if you are so inclined, your current officers' names and emails are in the front of this newsletter. Send them an email telling them Thank You! Little things like that make a person's day. Send your complaints and hate mail to weloveyoutoo@colonialhills.com. We will respond to every one we get.

TROOP 331 FOOD DRIVE

SATURDAY,
NOVEMBER 7

Question: What action drives dopamine, oxytocin and serotonin, increasing mental health and decreasing negative stress and anxiety?

Answer: Giving! And since we care about those positive benefits and more importantly, care about our community, we are again partnering with Troop 331 for a Food Drive on Saturday, November 7.

Last year, Colonial Hills and the Cub Scouts collected a record 2,224 lbs of food. Records are made to be broken! So be on the lookout for more information and make a run to your local grocery store to help those in need in our community. Not only are you helping friends and neighbors in the community, you are helping yourself.

THANK YOU TO LESLIE

We are blessed to have a tremendous group of volunteers in Colonial Hills. Friends and neighbors show up to support the neighborhood in ways big and small. And though she doesn't want the attention, like a true servant-hearted leader, Leslie Caruso is one of those neighbors and volunteers that shows up at every event to truly embody "The Friendly Community." Leslie also happens to be the Civic Association President! So we want to take a moment to very publicly say "Thank you!"

We are not sure how we lucked out and got such a gem for our small association but Leslie is a gift to this community. Whether you realize it or not, she is often the first to arrive and last to leave at events and helps make sure the merry band of neighbors on the CHCA board stay on task and serving the community. Thank you for your leadership Leslie. We appreciate you!

SCAM-PROOFING YOUR FAMILY

By Lindsay Gwozdz

I manage risk for a mortgage bank: fraud, cybersecurity, the whole worrying menu. Which means I'm the one my family calls. Over the years I've walked my parents, grandparents, and siblings through the same short list of protections, and it occurred to me our neighbors might find it useful too. Here it is. A handful of things that take an afternoon and can save you an awful year.

Freeze your kids' credit. If you have children, this is the one I'd beg you to do. Your child has a Social Security number and a blank credit file. They are a perfect, quiet target. A thief can open accounts in your ten-year-old's name, and you won't find out until they apply for a student loan years later. A freeze locks that file. It's free, and you place it separately at all three bureaus; for a child it takes a little paperwork. (Links below.) While you're at it, freeze your own. That part takes about ten minutes online.

Have "the phone call rule" with your parents. The grandparent scam is exploding, and it's gotten frighteningly good. Losses reported by older adults recently quadrupled into the billions. A panicked voice calls: "Grandma, I'm in trouble, I need money, don't tell Mom." With AI, scammers can now clone a grandchild's actual voice. I've had this exact conversation with the older adults in my own family. The fix is low-tech: agree that any urgent call asking for money or gift cards gets hung up on and called back on the real number. Better yet, pick a family "safe word." If the caller can't say it, it's a scam.

Treat urgent texts and links like strangers at the door. Almost every scam runs on urgency — the unpaid toll, the "fraud alert," the delivery fee. The point is to spike your heart rate so you act before you think. The rule I give everyone: never click the link in the message. If it might be real, go to the source. Type the bank's address yourself, or call the number on your card.

Two quick habits. Turn on two-factor authentication for your email and bank. Email especially, since it resets every other password. And use a password manager so one breach doesn't become ten.

If something does go sideways, report it at ReportFraud.ftc.gov. It's free, and it helps investigators spot patterns.

None of this requires being a "tech person." Grab a coffee some Saturday and cross it off the list.

Where to freeze your child's credit (all free):

- Start here — the FTC's plain-English how-to: consumer.ftc.gov/articles/how-protect-your-child-identity-theft
- Experian: experian.com/blogs/ask-experian/requesting-a-security-freeze-for-a-minor-childs-credit-report
- Equifax: equifax.com/personal/credit-report-services/credit-freeze
- TransUnion: transunion.com/credit-freeze

Have a question? I'm a neighbor — flag me down.

LUMINARY KITS ASSEMBLY

Please save the date for Saturday, December 5, at 10:00 AM—the first Saturday in December—to come over to the shelter house for our Luminary Kits Assembly event. We hope to be completed with our assembly tasks by around 11:00 AM, the same as last year, when 22 adult and 12 youth volunteers completed assembly for 902 kits for our 826 homes in Colonial Hills at 10:50 AM, tying our record time of the previous year. So shovelers, keep your garden shovel ready for use in December!

I will be writing another article for the next Courier and a blogpost for the website, explaining the volunteer positions for this event. This article and blogpost will give the link for the SignUpGenius, which also will be publicized via both the CHCA and the Colonial Hills Facebook pages by around the second week in November.

The same as the previous four years, signing up via SignUpGenius for a given position and arriving about 5 to 10 minutes before 10:00 AM, will reserve this position for you. After all reserved positions have been filled, we will assign those volunteers who didn't sign up beforehand, to fill any remaining inside and outside positions – and please note that we are grateful for all volunteers, and we always seem to find a position for everyone.

Most of our volunteers return every year, especially to enjoy conversations with their neighbors new and old—plus the donuts, coffee and hot chocolate!
