

25th Annual Colonial Hills 5K "Run Through the Hills"

Race results, Saturday, July 3, 2004

This year's race saw 111 runners participate, and it was the fifth consecutive year we've had over 100 runners! Thank you to the volunteers who assisted this year: Christine Hoersten, Judy Galasso, Joanne Nay, Jennifer and Dan Button, Sheila Fox, Beau Euton, Tom McCandlish and a young man named Dustin (didn't get his last name). These events couldn't take place without these volunteers. Thanks! Race co-chairs: Doug Matthies and Jeff Spain, who ran the race in 22:37.

First overall:

Male Bob Moore 16:04
Female Ellen Birmingham 22:10

Earning for Learning!

Want to help out Colonial Hills Elementary School while you shop? Save all of your receipts from Polaris Fashion Mall between now and September 30, and take them to Guest Reception at the mall to earn points for the school. Shop on Monday and Tuesdays for double points!

Top prize is $15,000. Call (614) 456-0123 for more info.

Brain-Buster Question of the Month!

'El Capitan' is 3,593 feet tall. What is it made of?

Call Jack at 844-5122 with your answer. One winner will be randomly selected from all correct answers submitted before August 31, and will receive a gift certificate to the Rusty Bucket.

Last issue's answer: The missing half of 'Half Dome' was carved away by glaciers.

Congratulations to Terry Seidel for his correct answer! Nice work Terry!
