As you can see we had many runners this year in spite of the rain and our numbers continue to increase. Our goal for next year is to have 200 runners come to Colonial Hills to battle the Run through the Hills. None of this could have happened without the following neighborhood volunteers: Jeff Spain, Courtney Jolley, Dan Button, Sheila Fox, Christine Hoersten, Mary Ann Ogle, Robin Ogle, Trina Williams, our community Sponsors – The CyMack Group, Giant Eagle, Fat Rabbit Racing, Business and Industry Training Services, Worthington Community Center, Starbucks, RoadID, Second Sole of Delaware - and of course each of you cheering everyone on!

The 2008 Annual Kiddie Parade survived the rain, with many little ones coming out with fancy decorations and entertaining the spectators. As expected the Fourth of July was the theme of the day, with bicycles, tricycles, floats, strollers, scooters, walkers, and dogs in the lime light. As is tradition, they all circled Selby Park to patriotic music.

Special thanks to the judges of the Kiddie Parade: Rosalie Hoover, Ryan Hoover, Teresa Moore, Katie Dilts, Jackie Humbleby, Victor Nardy and Robin Ogle, our co-coordinator, and a huge thank-you to Mary Ann and Gary Ogle for continuing such a fine Colonial Hills tradition. We are greatly saddened to note that Larry Hunt passed away on Tuesday, July 8, 2008, after a year-long battle with cancer. A longtime resident of Colonial Hills, Larry was an active member of the Association and provided years of dedicated service to our neighborhood. He will be deeply missed! Condolences may be sent to www.rutherfordfuneralhomes.com. Sign the online guestbook at www.dispatch.com/obituaries.

NEW FUNDRAISER: The Colonial Hills Civic Association has teamed up with Tilton’s Automotive Service in a unique fund-raising venture to benefit the CHCA and its many neighborhood programs. We are selling special cards offering discounted services: Each $40 card will provide to the recipient (2) oil
